Sir,

With reference to your Roobakari No. 633 dated $\frac{22}{25}$th February 1901, calling for a report on certain points in connection with a Prana Devaru Temple newly built in a site opposite to Sree Chaturbhuja Pattabhiramaswami Temple

Temple at Hole Narsipur, I have the honor to state that the Amildar reports that the puja of Anjaneya Devaru alluded to in the above, is being regularly performed by the Archiks of Sree Pattabhirama swami temple or by their relatives and that there can be no objection to ~~their~~ being allowed to continue the performance of the puja.

2 – With regard to the question whether any sum could be spared out of the income of Sree Pattabhirama Swami for the Padithara expenses of the Anjaneya Devaru, the Amildar reports that nothing could be spared for the purpose.

Such is also the reply from Sree Yogananda Saraswati Swami to whom a reference had been made in the matter.

3) – The Amildar, further reports that by leasing out the tiled house and the seven cocoanut-trees standing within the compound of the temple, an yearly income of Rs 10/- may be realized, which may, without any prejudice to the income of Sree Pattabhirama Swami, be used for the Paditharam Expenses of Anjaneya Devaru.

The file Vernacular papers ending with Amildars report No: 48 dated 11th November 02 is herewith submitted for reference and kind return.

R.O 1981 Ex file

To

The Dy Commr
Hassan District

Dated March 1903.

His Letter no 433 dated 5th March 1903, reporting on the petition of one Ananta Ramengar of Holenarasipur, praying that Paditara and Deeparadhane expenses of the Anjaneyaswami temple, newly built by him may be paid from the funds of the Sri Chaturbhuja Pattabhiramaswami temple at Holenarasipur

The Dy Commr is of opinion that nothing could nothing could be spared from the funds of the Sri Chaturbhuja Pattabhi

-ramaswami Temple for the new temple in question but that however he recommends that the tiled house and the cocoanut trees standing within the compound of the new temple be leased out and the annual income thereof utilized towards the Deity. From the vernacular records it is observed that the house and the cocoanut trees belong to the Sri Chaturbhuja Pattabhi-
-ramaswami Temple &
that Sri Venkatesa Yoga Brahmananda Saraswati
Swami has permanently leased out the cocoanut & other trees

in the Compound to one Tammayya, on condition of paying Rs 4 annually. This income is however being received by the Swami since 1894 and not credited to the funds of the Trustees, except in the last two years -

A Darkhast appears to have been received in the Taluk offering a higher gutta on the cocoanut trees in question but the original lessee Tammiah seems to have been contending that as he had permanently taken them up from the Swami for an annual payment of Rs four he would not pay more than what he has been already paying. This point requires final decision, apart from the question of utilizing the amount towards the new temple. The Dy Commr is therefore requested to furnish information on the following points:—

(i) Who is in possession of the tiled house and what rent does it fetch—

(ii) Why should the cocoanut trees (7 in number) be permanently leased out for a paltry sum of Rs 4 a year, if they can fetch more

(iii) What is the Dy Commr's opinion as to leasing out the house and the trees by open competition, if it is considered more advantageous –

(iv) In whose name does the patta of the land stands at present.

To,

The Deputy Secretary to the Government of Mysore Muzrai Department.

Sir,

With reference to your Docket 1981 Dated 27th March 1903 calling for further particulars in regard to the Paditara and Deeparadhane expenses of the Anjaneyaswami Temple newly built by one Anantaramaiya at Holé Narsipur, I have the honor to state as follows:-

(1) The house in question is said to be occupied by one Subbanna, a poor Bramhin who does not seem to pay any rent at present. It is reported by the Amildar that the house is less than three Ankanams in extent (6 feet square) and that the highest rent it might fetch is annas eight and that it is doubtful if it would fetch even this amount.—

II. There is no reason for permanently leasing out the seven Cocoanut trees for a paltry sum of Rs 4 while they can fetch more.—

III I am of opinion that it is desirable to lease out the house and trees for a definite period of say 10 years by open competition on condition that the house and "Totam" be kept in good order. I think this will be more advantageous and if necessary the leasing may be renewed after this period or a fresh lease granted upon better terms if available.

As the patta of the land stands in the name of the Anjanaiga-Devaru and as the lease from the Swami appears to have been in possession of the same only since 1874; I do not see why the lease should not be cancelled and the same given out to the highest bidder – The lease amount may be utilized for Paditana & Deepa-radane expenses and IV The Patta of the land stands in the name of the Anjanaiga Devaru —

2 – Vernacular papers ending with Holi Narsipur Amildars report No. 57 Dated 18th December 1903

Petn. no. 940 dy 16th Feb: 1901 from Anantaramengar of Hole Narasipur regarding the affairs of the Bana Devaru temple built by him.

And,

Correspondence ending with letter no. 3716 dy 11th Feb: 1904 from the Dy Commr., Hassan District reporting on the above.

Order thereon:—

The petitioner prays (1) that the Archak of the Sri Chaturbhuja Pattabhi Ramaswami temple at Hole Narasipur may be directed to perform Puin the Prana Devam temple built by him, and (2) that some allowance may be sanctioned from the Tasdik of the former towards the Paditara expenses of the latter temple.

2. With reference to the above, the Dy Commr reports that the Puja of the Prana Devam is being regularly performed by the Archaks of the Sri Pattabhi Ramaswami temple or by their relatives, but that nothing could be spared out of the income of the latter temple for the purpose of the Paditara of the former.

— 7/4/04

But, it is reported that a small house - about 6 feet square - fetching a rent of 8 annas a month and a garden containing a few Cocoanut trees belong to the said Prana Devara temple. This garden is stated to have been leased out for a paltry sum of Rs 4 by the Swami of the Sri Yogananda Matt
The Dy Commr. recommends that as the Patta of the said garden stands in the name of the temple (Anjaneya Devaru) the lease granted by the Swami in 1894 may be cancelled and that both the garden & the house leased out for a definite period of 10 years to ~~the~~ the best advantage of the temple, the lease amount being utilized for the Paditara &c of the Prana Devaru Temple. This recommendation is sanctioned. A written Mutchalika should be obtained from the Archaks of the Sri Pattabhiramaswami temple agreeing to perform the Puja of the Prana Devaru in question utilizing the income derived from the lease of the garden & the house.
